

2019 Prophetic Word over Tulsa and this Nation

Apostle Kathy Holcomb

Jan 17, 2019

2019 will be a year of increase. By June, you are going to need to be ready. It's going to be an active summer. Again, be ready for it. This will be a year of new joy in the house and it will be a year that greater understanding will be available for those who choose it. I have set in order a timing for what is ahead and I will not delay for those who choose to move into it. It is a time when you must trust Me and know that all that lies ahead is precisely orchestrated for My Glory to be seen in all this Earth and it will bring you glory as you allow Me to direct you into these paths. It will mean doing some things different; and for some it will be difficult and uncomfortable. But if you allow Me to move you into the paths I intend for you, you will experience a fullness in who I am that will, in itself, bring change. My heart is for you and I to desire to have your heart and be first in it. I will do as I need to do in order for the world to see what I have spoken in My word and to further fulfill that which has been prophesied; for I am a faithful God. My plans are never to hurt those I love, only to prosper and bring you into realms of my Spirit that few have found; and to help you choose the "more" that I have for you. Again, I say trust Me; be attentive and allow yourselves to rest in what I am doing. As you flow with Me, I will show myself to this world. I will break the circumstances as they exist and draw even the eyes of the non-believer. People will be caused to make new choices and they will need to have examples that will help them maneuver in new ways of living. It will look chaotic, but it will be okay. It takes tough things to cause minds to understand differently. You are stationed on the rock and those who stay in that place will not be moved in the midst of this. It is a time to have open minds and fixed eyes and believe Me rather than fear. It will be a time of great joy. Listen, for I have much more to say..... I am ready to talk with My people.
