

Week 69

Release the Political Prisoners

Dear City Intercessor,

Last week I had the opportunity to interview lawyer and former professor David Clements who was fired for his conservative beliefs. He has been working with Mike Lindell and General Flynn to restore election integrity, but he has also been working to see the political prisoners, still held from January 6 at the Capitol Building, released.

Of the 681 arrested, there are around SEVENTY still held in prison, in ISOLATION, without benefit of typical health and hygiene offered to even death row prisoners. They have been denied their 6th amendment right to a speedy trial. The 8th amendment has also been violated which protects American citizens from cruel and unusual punishment. In addition to abysmal conditions of bug-infested isolation cells, they have been subjected to psychological abuse and denied the right, at times, to meet with lawyers. It is evil.

Justice has been driven back, and righteousness stands at a distance; truth has stumbled in the streets, honesty cannot enter. (Is 59:14)

Mind you, these are men and women who were non-violent and who have yet to be convicted of any crime. They were invited to come into the Capitol Building by the Capitol police who posed with some of them in pictures and shook their hands. This was nine months after BLM and Antifa WERE violent, ravaged numerous cities, threatened police and where people WERE killed. Very, very few of those violent activists were arrested or charged with crimes, although many were committed compared to these Jan. 6 patriots whose biggest crime was stupidity for entering the Capitol building.

If you believe the current reports that there was an “insurrection” that day, please read the story I filed from my eye witness account. We knew it was fishy from the beginning and said so. This was long before it became such an ongoing story. Click here to read that article.

To date the Biden admin has refused to release thousands of hours of video from various angles, which would confirm innocence and nullify their “insurrection” narrative. It is illegal for them to withhold this evidence, and yet they continue to do so.

This week let's stand together to pray for the immediate release of those still being held as well as for those experiencing religious persecution and imprisoned around the world because they stand for Christ.

Father, we come before you on behalf of the political prisoners being held unjustly in American prisons in conditions that we have not even allowed for murderers and terrorists. We pray for speedy and divine intervention for their release and restoration to their families.

You saw how even this week another patriot was indicted because he refused to bow to their schemes and attempts to gather information against President Trump. The wicked laughed at their ability to arrest him and have promised they will go after more who were part of the Trump administration. May their threats fall to the ground. You said an evil man is held captive by his own sins and they are ropes that catch and hold him. May it be so.

Your Word says that all rulers You have established hold no terror for those who do right, but for those who do wrong. That if we want to be free from fear of the one in authority then all we need to do is what is right and we will be commended. This administration is not that and therefore prove they are not established by You according to the criteria of Your Word.

Evidence clearly shows we did not vote them in and now the righteous have reason to fear their retribution. Lord we ask that You not hold us accountable for their corrupt actions and ungodly ways. May the trap they have laid, they fall into themselves. For the righteous, whom they are targeting for destruction and arrest, that protect them by Your name and be a strong tower they can run into for safety against this evil.

Father we stand in the gap and pray on behalf of these political prisoners and those around the world persecuted for righteousness. It is wicked. You see how the wicked seem to prosper and mock as they threaten and persecute those who have stood against unrighteousness. Your Word says the violence of the wicked will destroy them because they refuse to do justice.

Lord, we don't pray for their destruction, but for them to come to know You. But if they refuse, may they be removed and their influence and ability to manipulate be destroyed. May their grip of evil over our nation and around the world be broken. Your Word says, "In a little while, the wicked will be no more; though we look for them, they will not be found."

We pray that you would restore the finances, businesses and families of those who have been left to languish in prison. What Satan meant for evil, Lord please turn it for their good as only You can do. Deliver them, deliver us, deliver Your people, from evil.

We pray for those incarcerated who have been refused necessary medical care, that they will receive it. We pray that they will receive normal amounts of food and will be removed from the filthy, bug-infested cells where they have been held and released to freedom.

We pray for those who are about to admit to guilt just to be released. Lord, they are tired, hungry and weak. Give them strength. May not a single one be charged with things they did not do or be forced to sign a confession, just to see their families.

We declare that this injustice and corruption that has been crippling our nation, will continue to be exposed, stopped, and removed. We pray for true justice to be restored.

We declare that America will once again be the land of the free and the home of the brave. Infuse us with bravery and courage and may the fear of the Lord and revival fill our land. May Your Kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Prov 21:7 & 12, Prov 5:22, Prov 26:27, Prov 18:10, Ps 37:10, Ro 13:1 & 3-4, Gen 50:20, Matt 6:10 & 13

Standing together,
